Congratulations on your decision to attend Ursuline College! This is an exciting time as you prepare to become an Ursuline student. Below are initial details about mandatory orientation sessions you will attend to help in your preparation. As well important deadlines concerning living on campus are listed.

Academic Orientation
You will receive a mailing from the office of Ursuline Resources for Success in Academics (URSA) inviting you to attend an Academic Orientation day during which you will be given an overview of academics at Ursuline, apply for your computer network account, meet with an academic advisor to plan your schedule for fall semester, and register for those selected classes. This is a mandatory program for all new students; you will be invited by letter to attend a date during the summer.

Contact: Ursuline Resources for Success in Academics if you have any questions.

Living on Campus
Hopefully you will consider the residence halls your “home away from home.” The residence halls provide fun social opportunities that will help you make connections and develop new friendships. By interacting with students from different backgrounds, with diverse life experiences, interests and talents, you will learn more about yourself, and develop important skills that will serve you well throughout your life. The Residence Life staff looks forward to meeting you and helping you become acclimated to your new home.

Once you have submitted a $100.00 housing deposit you will be sent a Housing Contract and Room Placement Survey. Please review the important dates and deadlines below:

- Deadline for refund for room and board deposit May 1, 2012
- Housing Contract & Room Placement Survey Due June 8, 2012
- Deadline to be released from housing contract June 1, 2012
- Roommate & Housing Assignments Mailed Out Week of July 16, 2012
- New Resident Move In August 18, 8-10 AM

Contact: Department of Residence Life if you have any questions.

Fall Orientation: New Students and Traditional-Age Transfer Students
Held Saturday and Sunday August 18 & 19, Fall Orientation is a mandatory program for new students and traditional-age transfer students (those under 21 and transferring fewer than 38 credits.) Over the course of two days you will become acclimated to campus resources, participate in meaningful campus traditions and begin the important process of meeting and making friends – all guided by a supportive and enthusiastic team of upperclass Orientation Arrows.

Contact: Orientation Office if you have any questions.
Brandi Rizzo, Coordinator; 440.646.8321; brizzo@ursuline.edu

Fall Orientation: Non-traditional-Age Students
Held Friday evening, August 17, Fall Orientation for Non-traditional-Age Students is a session for students who are over the age of 21 or students transferring more than 38 credits. This program is designed to acclimate you to important campus resources and give you information needed for a successful transition to Ursuline.

Contact: Orientation Office if you have any questions.
